EGOR DOUBAY/ HIGHLY DEMANDED SAXOPHONE PLAYER BASED IN THE BENELUX.

Egor Doubay(25) is a professional saxophone player based in Belgium. He was originally born in Belarus and moved to Belgium with his parents at a young age. As a son of a professional dancer and musician, Egor soon discovered his interest in jazz music with the guidance of his father. Following this, he quickly became a student at the SAMWD Lier, a prestigious academy for music and dance. Egor later attended the Kunsthumaniora! In the city of Antwerp. He graduated summa cum laude from both schools. Egor also got the opportunity to combine his final years of the humaniora with the musical program at the Conservatory of Antwerp.

Having spent most of his years in Belgium, he found it was time to explore different musical horizons. Egor applied and got accepted to different schools in Europe and finally chose to attend the Conservatory of Amsterdam, where he is still a student.

From an early age Egor has been performing regularly on festivals, jazz clubs, masterclasses, competitions and working together with celebrities from radio and TV. Egor quickly established a reputation as one of the most dominating young artists to look out for in the Benelux.

Egor has shared the stage with acknowledged musicians from around the world and got classes with some of the greatest jazz musicians. Some musicians to mention; Aaron Parks, Mark Turner, Dick Oatts, Jesse Van Ruller, Terell Stafford, John Clayton, Wycliffe Gordon, Ferdinand Povel, Jasper Blom, Simon Rigter, Rob van Bavel, Ben van Gelder, Bert Joris, Kenny Garrett, Seamus Blake, Bob Mintzer, Brad Mehldau and many, many more.

Egor is a much demanded side-man and studio musician. Extremely dedicated, Influenced by different artistic cultures and developed years of experience working with top artist around the globe. This formula guarantees you quality in every aspect of musicianship.

EGOR DOUBAY QUARTET

Aside from performing with different acknowledged artists, and being a much demanded studio musician he proves to be a true leader. His international quartet consist of the most interesting talented young lions of this generation. Tommaso Perazzo(Italy) on piano, Kimon Karoutzos(Greece) double bass, Toon Verheyen(Finland) drums. Each member of the band has its own strong developed artistic personality and collides perfectly with Egor's beautiful sound and virtuosity.

This band plays a repertoire of songs that Egor composed over the years. You'll hear a clear influence of Jazz, Classical, Hip hop and Folk music. You're guaranteed to be intrigued by the atmospheric color pallets these young dudes bring to the stage.

After recording numerous albums as a sideman, Egor will release his first album end of this year. Critics say that this could be the representation and verification that Belgium has some of the finest young musicians around.
